Mr. Cline: To catch you up on the  NIS situation:

1) Attached is a copy of the  paper going to USIB members for formal comment. We have reviewed a draft  and concurred generally. The meat from our point of view is in the  footnote on Page 4 of the concept paper which presents CIA's view of the committee chairmanship, with which you agreed.

2) Also attached is a note to you from  on a new Reference Guide. The cost figures he refers to I have attached. What  wants to emphasize at the same time is the production comparison (lower left corner of cost paper) in which we outproduce DIA.

1. I want  to prepare the suggested DD1 comment on the USIB paper.

2. OK with me to push Reference Guide as far as is decent and not too descriptive. It looks good to me.
